Conference Introduction

The 3rd International Workshop on Green Energy, Environment and Sustainable Development (G2ESD2022) was organized by China University of Petroleum and Environment and Engineering Technology Development and Innovation Society (ETDIS).

The conference will be held at University hotel Weihai, Weihai, China, during 25-27 February 2022.

G2ESD2020 and G2ESD2021 were held Weihai, because of the COVID-19, both of them were in virtual Mode.

G2ESD2022 aims to provide an ideal platform for environmental engineers and researchers to present their work and share experiences and ideas in green energy and environmental engineering with experts worldwide. The theme of G2ESD 2022 is: Demonstrate innovative achievements and promote new technology in green energy, environment and sustainable development.

Parts of Technical Committee Member

Fabrizio Ambrosino, Department of Mathematics and Physics, University of Campania "Luigi Vanvitelli", Caserta-Italy

Gihan Suresh Aluvihara, Department of Chemical and Process Engineering, University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka

Yanhong Jiang, Xiamen University of Technology, China

Lei Jin, Xiamen University of Technology, China

Wongkot WONGSAPAI, Chiang Mai University, Thailand

Jinli Xu, Wuhan University of Technology of China, China

Call for Keynote Speakers

If you are interested in making a keynote speech at G2ESD, please send your latest CV to us g2esd@g2esd.net

Requirements A professor or got a doctor's degree.

The research area must be relevant to the conference: green energy, environment, and sustainable development.

The content of the speech needs to be entirely forward-looking and innovative.

Experience in keynote speech at other conferences.

Benefits

Free of charge to attend the conference, including accommodation during the conference and all sessions, but not including round-trip air tickets.

Free of charge to publish one article in proceedings.

Meet scholars from different countries who share the same related fields of your research.

To gain relevant research experience and potential collaboration opportunities.

Be a potential candidate for the TPC Chair for the next conference

Publication and Indexing

2-3 reviewers will review each submission, and the accepted papers after registration will be published in G2ESD2022 conference proceedings, which will be submitted to Ei Compendex and Scopus for index and submitted to be reviewed by Clarivate Analytics Conference Proceedings Citation Index (ISI Web of Science).
